IMPORTED CIGARS

MONTECRISTO DOUBLE EDMUNDO - CUBA

4,900

The Montecristo brand created the Edmundo line extension in 2004.

Fat and distinctive, Edmundo was an immediate hit, prompting new sizes such as this Double Edmundo (which is longer, but not fatter, than the Edmundo) in 2013. With gorgeous color, hints of oak and leather, the cigar seems to get better with each puff, culminating in a chocolatey finish.

BOLIVAR ROYAL CORONA - CUBA

4,500

Bolivar is one of the oldest and most popular brands in Cuba, being founded in the pre-revolutionary era. Heavy spice with an earthy base note on the first third evolves into mellow pepper and nutmeg on the second third. The spice lifts in the final third with lingering aromas of young cedar.

RAMON ALLONES, SPECIALLY SELECTED - CUBA

4,000

It entices you from the beginning with its buttery soft wrapper and sweet peppery aroma: an excellent Habano made to be savored slowly. Upon lighting, it starts with a mild aroma of wood and bitter notes but quickly develops into a flavor profile boasting smooth leather, sweet floral, and pungent spices. As the experience progresses, the cigar continues to deliver thick creamy smoke, remaining cool until the end.

ROMEO Y JULIETA NO. 2, TUBOS - CUBA

2,200

It reveals some earthy, woody aromas, and a good amount of leather and some hints of spice on the tongue. The construction is wonderful, it is a beautiful hand rolled stogie, and the packaging, the magnificent aluminum tube, makes it a cigar that every cigar enthusiast should have in his humidor.

LA FLOR DE CANO, ELEGIDOS - CUBA

1,950

La Flor de Cano Elegidos, is the ideal Habano for those who enjoy medium strength Habanos made with short filler, specially conceived for those who desire a balanced, aromatic, and medium flavored cigar, that makes it the ideal partner for a short smoking time.

POR LARRAÑAGA, PETIT CORONAS - CUBA

2,600

Por Larrañaga is one of the oldest Cuban Cigar brands, having been established around 1834. The modern portfolio comprises only 4 regular production cigars, of which the Petit Corona is probably the most well-known. A great smoke for those who prefer milder smokes.

MACANUDO INSPIRADO, BLACK - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

1,800

"A full-bodied tapestry of dark chocolate, pepper, spice, and roasted nuts over a background of cedar, espresso, and tobacco sweetness will pour from the cap with every puff, satisfying for the most seasoned of palates"

SOBREMESA, EL AMERICANO - NICARAGUA

1,800

"An exceptionally rich, complex, and smooth medium-full bodied smoke brimming with flavors of chocolate, pepper, cedar, coffee, tobacco sweetness, leather, and an overall creaminess that will delight with every puff"

LOCAL CIGARS

DON JUAN URQUIJO

Connoisseurs praised this as the “perfect morning cigar” while magazine reviews gave it an Excellent rating. The DJU cigar has creamy overtones with gentle hints of citrus and spice. Every draw concludes in delightfully generous buttery plumes of smoke.
